WATSON HELD FOR HIGH COURT

Probable Cause Found in Groton Town Court—Hearing Given Him Charged with Arson.

Everett Ernest Watson was held on Monday for the next term of the superior court on the charge of arson, Judge Frederick P. Lathrop of the Groton town court finding probable cause and holding accused under $2,000 bonds, in default of which Watson was taken to the county jail at New London.

Watson was arrested Thursday evening, October 12, while on his way to his home in Mystic by State Police-men A. L. Rudd, R. W. Bridgeman and F. W. Mitchell on the charge of setting fire to the Central hall building in Mystic early in the morning of Tuesday, October 11. He was locked up in Groton and was taken to jail in New London Friday.

He is 23 years of age, married and is a painter. He had lived in Mystic about ten years. The case for the state was presented by Prosecuting Attorney Warren B. Burrows, accused being defended by Attorney Herbert W. Rathbun.

First Witness for State.
The first witness for the state was Mrs. Flora Wilbur Strickland of Mystic. She testified to seeing Watson up to his home early on the morning of the fire, the time she first saw him being 3 a. m. She was out of bed setting medicine for herself and saw a light in the Watson house and saw him about half an hour afterwards she saw him come out and run from the house at 3:30 a. m. Did not see him again the morning of the fire.

Cross-examined by Attorney Burrows, she stated the admission to the show was paid by his friend and that he went to bed at 10 p. m.

Mrs. Minnie Watson, wife of accused, testified to hearing the first alarm just after 4 a. m. There was only her husband in the house. He had returned home at 10 o'clock the previous night. She didn't wake him at the first alarm, as she thought he would not be able to go to work afterwards. He did not get out of bed until breakfast was ready, and left the house about 6:15 a. m.

Cross-examined by Mr. Burrows, she testified she was awake at 4 o'clock and was positive her husband did not go to bed until 10 o'clock.

The prosecution called in rebuttal William E. Rocheland, a resident of the 10th and 615 a. m. on the 11th.

He was employed by Starr Bros. in the drug store and that he saw Watson the morning of the fire in front of the Albert block between 5 a. m. and 6:30 a. m. Cross-examination caused him to fix the time as 5:15, and again at 6:25. The first time Watson had no "burn" box, but had one the second time.

William McLaughlin, recalled by the state, testified to seeing Watson that morning at 6:30 a. m. He had no dinner box at the time.

BEEKEEPERS AT HARTFORD.
Ontario Apiarist Speaks at Both Sessions of Convention.

The Connecticut Beekeepers' association held its fall convention at the Young Men's Christian association building, Hartford, with morning and afternoon sessions, Saturday and Sunday.

The morning session opened at 9 o'clock with the president, Allen Latham, of Norwich, in the chair. Prayer was offered, after which Morley Pettit, of the Ontario apiarist, made a report of the value of bees on the farm, saying that they are of inestimable value as fertilizers of fruit and seed blossoms as well as honey producers.

Mr. Pettit, at the afternoon session spoke of his work at the Ontario Agricultural college, where he has charge of the college apiary and has given of twenty-five lectures on bees. He also has charge of the provincial inspectors.

BALTIC
Epworth League Participates in Evening Service at M. E. Church.

The Epworth league united with the church service at the Baltic M. E. church Sunday evening.

Mrs. George led the meeting. Rev. Mr. Smith gave an address. There was special singing, including anthems and duets.

The solo parts were taken by Miss Thomas of Versailles and James Roy of Baltic.

The last enumeration of missionaries in China gives their number as 2,270. The native church is doubling about every seven years, and the missionary force every ten years.

He worked for Mr. Cousins on Monday, Oct. 10. He reached home that night early. He went down street and talking with them on the Chinaman's steps. Afterwards he went with a friend to the moving picture show in Central hall. Came out and went to Baptist Hill with him and was home by 10 o'clock. He never left the house again until 6:15 a. m. on the morning of the fire. This morning he was wakened up by his wife about 4:30 a. m., who told him the alarm had been sounded. His wife had been up earlier and lighting the lamp and went back to bed after putting the lamp out. He never got out of bed until his wife told him breakfast was going. Then he drew some water for her before going to work. Justin Denison met him at the well, and he (Watson) asked where the fire was.

Taking his dinner box, he started for work but finding no cars were running he telephoned to Mr. Cousins, and let him know he was not going to work. There was only a little water to do, so he returned home at 11:30 a. m. During the day he assisted his wife to get ready to move to the new house. He saw Luther Morgan near the fire and moved away, as he thought Mr. Morgan was after him on account of a debt he owed him. He had never been in Cliff street the morning of the fire and was positive he never left the house that morning.

Cross-examined by Attorney Burrows, he stated the admission to the show was paid by his friend and that he went to bed at 10 p. m.

Mrs. Minnie Watson, wife of accused, testified to hearing the first alarm just after 4 a. m. There was only her husband in the house. He had returned home at 10 o'clock the previous night. SURPRISED.
James D'Atti a Republican, Not a Socialist.

I was surprised to see in the Norwich Bulletin of Monday morning that I had been nominated for office on the socialist ticket without having been consulted. I am a republican and do not understand why such liberty should have been taken with my name, as I intend to stand with the republicans and to vote the republican ticket of November 8.

Working for the Owls.
I. R. Sanford, organizer for Norwich of the Order of Owls, returned Monday from his summer home at Pine Grove, Niantic, where he spent Sunday.

Mr. Sanford says that many of the leading citizens of Niantic are joining the New London Nest of Owls, and that the institution of that body will be the order of Owls, which will occur November 25. Delegations from many New England nests will be there and a great street parade with several bands will precede the institution of the nest.

He intends to close the Norwich chapter about November 12, and says that many of our leading citizens have expressed their intention of joining.

NORWICH TOWN

Harvest Concert at Scotland Road School House—Daniel L. Coit Saw First Balloon Ascension—Fine Sheep Purchased.

At the Scotland road school house Sunday afternoon there was not room for all who wished to attend the harvest concert. The room was bright with autumn flowers and fruit. The walls were decorated with bunches of seed corn and autumn leaves. The programme follows:

Song, The Reapers; Welcome, Eleanor or Hansen; God of Season, Misses Swanson and Erickson; trio, Where Shall We Spend Eternity? Mr. and Mrs. Kershaw and Mrs. Fifth; prayer, Mr. Kershaw; Hadsome Song, Emily and Susie Wilcox; exercise, Harvest, by seven pupils; song, Gaily We Are Sowing, audience; address, William Crawford; song by the quartette consisting of the Misses Swanson and Erickson and Messrs. Lees and McGill; song, The Snow Prayer, Warren Sharples; songs, W. Belong, and Abbie With Me, audience.

Witnessed First Balloon Ascension.
Miss Caulkins in her History of Norwich speaks of the first successful balloon experiment which took place in Paris, December 1, 1783. Daniel L. Coit was there and wrote to his father in Norwich about "This new art of flying." His account was published in a Norwich weekly newspaper and was the first account of any such event to be published on this side the Atlantic Ocean.

Messrs. Charles and Robert ascended to the height of 500 yards and then sailed away on the wings of the wind to a distance of nine leagues." The writer then adds: "The novelty of the thing is so great that it engrosses half the talk and attention of the city of Paris."

Buys Flock of Shropshires.
Miss Marjorie M. Barber of Plain Hill has purchased a flock of sheep from a stock farm in Lodi, N. Y. They are thoroughbred Shropshires.
